

Philadelphia's Homeless Children

Monday, June 8, 3:00 P.M. to 5:00 P.M

- Purpose: Let's make homeless children a priority. More than 5,000 children in Philadelphia experienced homelessness in 2008. This forum considers the recommendations of the National Center on Family Homelessness in their recent publication America's Youngest Outcasts, their national report that provides a comprehensive snapshot of child homelessness, and proposes the Campaign to End Child Homelessness.
- Where: Comcast Center, 1701 John F. Kennedy Boulevard, 45th floor Conference Center, Philadelphia, PA Map It
- Who: Dr. Ellen Bassuk, President, National Center on Family Homelessness
- Dr. Donald Schwarz, Deputy Mayor for Health and Opportunity, City of Philadelphia
- Alfred Quarles, Administrator/Regional Homeless Children's Initiative Coordinator, School District of Philadelphia
- Registration: Please send your name and organization to policy@pec-cares.org. Seating is limited and is offered on a first-come-first served basis.
